ABOUT PEOPLE

Peter Forth, our beloved brother in faith, died peacefully on Monday 26 January in Tauranga Hospital, New Zealand. Please pray for Marcia, and all of his beloved family.

Details of a Memorial Service to be confirmed.

From Jenny Fletcher:

My sincere thanks to my loving, caring friends in our beautiful Adare Church, for the practical help, supportive phone calls, prayers and love extended to myself (and Barry) on the unexpected stay in hospital as the result of a punctured lung. It may take some time before I will be able to join you all in worship as my muscles have deserted me and I am struggling mobility-wise.
Love and Blessings.

I recently had throat surgery to remove a "Zenker's Diverticulum" (Google it!). Thanks to everyone who has called or sent texts; your thoughts and prayers have been appreciated. I am recovering well, and Peter has enjoyed a little bit of peace and quiet at home .

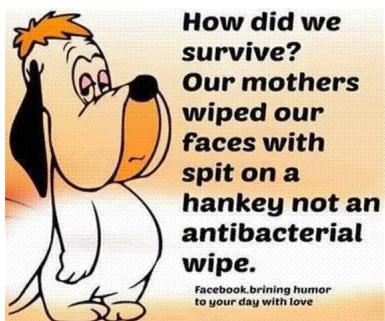

On a different note: please keep in your diaries 14th March, 12.00 pm until 3.00pm, open house, I'm having a high tea at our home (45 Harbour View Tce) for anyone who would like to pop in to celebrate my 70th year on this earth.

The Genius of Steven Wright:

- 1 - I'd kill for a Nobel Peace Prize.
- 2 - Borrow money from pessimists -- they don't expect it back.
- 3 - Half the people you know are below average.
- 4 - 99% of lawyers give the rest a bad name.
- 5 - 82.7% of all statistics are made up on the spot.
- 6 - A conscience is what hurts when all your other parts feel so good.
- 7 - A clear conscience is usually the sign of a bad memory.

Give a man a fish and he'll eat for a day.

Teach a man to fish and you can sell him all your old gear on eBay!

Practice the pause.

Pause before judging.
 Pause before assuming.
 Pause before accusing.
 Pause whenever you're about to react harshly, and you'll avoid doing and saying things you will later regret.
